

EXPECT GERMANS TO STRIKE NEAR ARRAS

Hindenburg's Reserves Massed at This Point—Reinforced British Line Prepared.

(By James M. Tuohy.)
(Copyright, 1918, by New York World.)

London, June 14.—There is no disposition here to minimize the serious possibilities involved in the present German attack. But, as the Germans' initial onset has failed to produce anything approaching an adequate result for the losses incurred by them, the progress of the battle now entered upon, which may probably extend to the northward, involving the British line, is watched with considerable confidence.

When the Germans fail to make good in one sector they have always an alternative point of attack decided upon, and this may be in the vicinity of Arras, where the bulk of the German reserves are concentrated. The British line is now greatly strengthened, and as a surprise attack has been ruled out because of the favorable weather recently for air scouting, the Germans may expect to meet the same stubborn resistance they have encountered on the French-American line.

FLAG OF TRUCE WAVED BY FIFTY GERMANS

Party Surrenders to Americans Who Attacked Northwest of Chateau Thierry.

(Associated Press.)

London, June 14.—A party of fifty Germans among the troops who attacked the Americans northwest of Chateau Thierry on Thursday surrendered under a flag of truce, reports the correspondent of the Daily Mail, with the American forces in France. All the German attacks failed and they left behind them dead and wounded. Describing the day's events the correspondent says:

"The Germans apparently are annoyed at losing Belleau wood. All night and early this morning guns of almost every calibre pounded the American lines at Bouresches and Belleau wood.

"Local attacks, more or less feeble in strength, followed, and the Germans entered the streets of Bouresches. Nevertheless the attacks

BIDBYE'S GOOD FORM

Children should not be permitted to interrupt or to monopolize a conversation. Parents of "smart" children often neglect this detail of good manners and encourage their offspring to "show off." On the other hand, some parents remain oblivious to a child's reasonable question, until the poor child screams it out or prefixes it with an impatient whine. A young child will seldom have better manners than its parents.

failed and the enemy left behind a number of dead, several wounded and many of prisoners, fifty of whom surrendered under a flag of truce; machine guns and trench mortars.

"About 400 cavalry were discovered south of Eterpilly (north of Bouresches), yesterday but few returned after the Americans had fired into them.

"It is believed the Germans have ordered fresh divisions to the American sector near Bussieres (west of Belleau wood).

"The excellent relations between the French and American commands is shown by the fact that a regiment of Zouaves and a division of French artillery are now working under an American divisional command.

PISTOLS OR KNIVES, CARMELO READY TO END DISPUTE

(International News Service.)

Albany, N. Y.—Sociolo Carmelo had a slight difference with his friend Santo Mostriano. He sent him this letter:

"My Dear Friend: I notify you that I am ready to meet any of your commands at any time you are ready. I write to tell you that you should come if I call, and I want to know if you wish to fight it out with revolvers or knives. Take your choice and make sure you come. Remember I write you not for bluff, and let me know when and where.

"The answer I expect from you should be returned by the same man who delivered it to you. Under my signature, your friend,

"SOCASIO CARMELO."

Carmelo was arrested for violating the law permitting duelling.

Rock Island, Ill.—Toilet water was contained in whiskey bottles found on persons arrested by federal authorities for attempting to smuggle liquor from Rock Island to Davenport, Ia., they said. ## THE PRESIDENT SAYS:

"This flag, which we honor and under which we serve, is the emblem of our unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation. It has not other character than that which we give it from generation to generation. The choices are ours. It floats in majestic silence above the hosts that execute those choices, whether in peace or in war. And yet, though silent, it speaks to us—speaks to us of the past, of the men and women who went before us, and of the records they wrote upon it.

"Woe be to the man, or group of men, that seeks to stand in our way in this day of high resolution, when every principle we hold dearest is to be vindicated and made secure for the salvation of nations. We are ready to plead at the bar of history, and our flag shall wear a new luster. Once more we shall make good with our lives and fortunes the great faith to which we were born, and a new glory shall shine in the face of our people."

WOODROW WILSON.

MOVEMENT SPREADS TO RECALL THE CZAR

Copyright, 1918, by New York World.

Paris, June 14.—Dispatches from Switzerland announce a rapidly spreading movement favoring the re-establishment of the czar in Russia. The people are praying in the churches for the monarch's return. The walls are nightly covered with placards inviting the people to rally round the crown.

A paper entitled the Czar has been published secretly in Petrograd. Lenin has offered a reward of $2,500 for the discovery of the printer.

The manifestation favoring the re-establishment of the czar is frequent, being especially violent on Wednesday. It is also reported that of various attempts to assassinate Lenin, the latest occurred on June 2, when his coachman was wounded.

Stockholm, June 14.—Passengers on a steamer from Petrograd, on whose veracity every reliance is placed, say that the food situation in Russia has reached a crisis. Many people have fallen in the streets of Petrograd from exhaustion due to hunger, and the hospitals are full of patients suffering from lack of food.

In spite of their most energetic efforts the bolshevik authorities can do nothing to alleviate the distress, and the position of the country is gradually growing worse, owing to their lack of experience and their inability to solve the difficult economic problems.

The starving workers are giving stronger and stronger proofs of their hostility to the existing regime, and serious food riots and their suppression with bloodshed by the Red Guard are the order of the day. Many threats are made against the red soldiers, whose exactions are growing more severe daily. There is a grave menace of mob law.

SWEDISH SHIP SUNK BY U-BOAT; NO WARNING

WOMAN WITH TWO HUSBANDS SAYS SHE WANTS NEITHER

(International News Service.)

San Francisco.—A husband's return to a la Enoch Arden, albeit with a different sort of outcome, has so upset the life of Mrs. Anna H. Moore that whereas she found she had two husbands instead of the more conventional one, she has decided to get rid of both.

In 1909 her first husband, Wiley A. Moore, disappeared and later she heard he had been killed. In 1914 she married Langford L. Moore—no relation to the first spouse—and lived with him until a few days ago, when Wiley did a "come back." The wife obtained an annulment from Langford and announced that she would bring divorce action against Wiley. She declared she had no intention of ever remarrying either.

AUTOMOBILE CATCHES FIRE AND IS DESTROYED

A new automobile belonging to E. J. Myers, of Chattanooga, was burned near Tallahoma a few days ago, while Mr. Myers and another man were en route from Nashville, where Mr. Myers had just bought the machine, to Chattanooga. It seems the gasoline tank sprung a leak and in some manner caught fire and exploded. The machine was completely wrecked, and was later sold for scrap iron.

Mr. Myers was knocked unconscious for a short time, but was otherwise uninjured, and, taking his loss in a philosophical way, boarded a train for his home.

WRECKAGE MILE SQUARE AT SCENE OF SEA FIGHT

Italian Seaplanes Report Thorough Work of Torpedo Boats Vs. Austrians.

(Associated Press.)

Venice, June 13.—Italian seaplanes have visited the scene of the action Monday, where two Austrian battleships were torpedoed by two Italian torpedo boats and have found wreckage a mile square, ten miles north of where the attack took place, having been carried there by the currents. Many dead sailors also were seen in the water and Austrian destroyers were discovered towing another destroyer along the coast.

The seaplanes also visited the harbor of Pola and ascertained that there is only one Austrian dreadnought there. As there is no other dreadnought afloat anywhere in the Adriatic, Commander Rizzo and his companions in Monday's exploit feel satisfied that they sunk 15th the Austrian warships.

SHEEP SHEARERS NOW DEMAND $60 A DAY

(International News Service.)

Boise, Idaho.—Sheep shearers in Idaho are making $40 a day, and if their demands for more wages are met they will make $60 a day, according to J. B. Whitson, a sheepman, in a complaint to the State Council of Defense. Shearers declare they have information indicating a state-wide sheep-shearing combination has been built up.

Shearers are getting 15 cents a head and by using machines each man can shear from 200 to 300 head of sheep a day. The shearers have made a demand for an increase to 20 cents a head. In addition, the boss of the crew is paid for boarding his men, which would bring the charge to about 28 cents a head, say the sheep owners.

What Will Be Your Answer?

Many American ships with many American lives are at the bottom of the Atlantic, victims of German lust for blood.

Our boys are going "over there," through a sea of hostile submarines, to fight that you and I at home may be safe.

But we can do something. It may not be much, but what we can do we must do. Germany said to us, "You cannot cross the ocean with your men! You cannot fight us, because you cannot reach us!" And now she is waiting for our answer.

June 28th National War Savings Day

Every man, woman and child is going to join in an answer that can be heard from one end of Germany to the other—an answer so clear, so strong and so true that it may have a far greater effect than any of us can imagine, on Germany's future policy.

Let this be our answer—let every person in this great land of ours pledge himself to buy as many War Savings Stamps as he can possibly afford. Let's show German autocracy that sinking our ships and killing our men only stirs us to action.

Let's make June 28 memorable in the history of our country as National W. S. S. Day. Let's you and I—and every you and I, man, woman and child—resolve that before we go to bed that night we will have as many War Savings Stamps pasted on our War Savings Certificates as we can buy.

If every man, woman and child rises to this occasion and buys stamps, you can bet that the Kaiser will know what it means. If every one of the hundred million Americans buys only one War Savings Stamp that day, the Government will have 425 million dollars.

But that is not enough. We must pledge five times that. Our quota for the nation is two billion dollars, to be raised through the sale of War Savings Stamps this year.

Let's not wait until another transport is blown up. Let's not wait until full-page casualty lists start coming in from France. Let's make up our minds to get busy and when each of us goes to bed tonight, let's be able to say to ourselves, "Well, perhaps I have not done much, but I have at least shown the mothers of our boys that I am behind them, and I have sent an answer to the Kaiser that will make him stop and think."
